THERE is another report out that the Apache hostiles have surrendered again. This thing is growing monotonous, and we propose to find out the facts about it.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL GARLAND got considerably battered up in the United States Senate yesterday. Likewise the "Government," as administered by Mr. Cleveland.

STEARNS'S wharf, at Santa Barbara, has received another lick from a coast steamer. Capt. Johnson appears to be "agin" that structure, which he keeps in a chronic state of disability by periodically running his ship into it. The consequence is, the old thing has got to piles, and got 'em bad.

THE railroad freight blockade at St. Louis and elsewhere in the west continues and gets "wusser and wusser." This interference with trade and commerce by the strikers must produce a reaction against the Knights of Labor, unless they repudiate extreme, arbitrary and oppressive measures on the part of their members.

THE Judiciary Committee's resolution condemning the discharge of ex-Union soldiers from civil employment under the government, and the putting of them in their places who had refused to military service to the enemy, was adopted by the Senate Friday by a vote of 56 yeas to one nay—Morgan, of Alabama.

THE LOS ANGELES TIMES says that "the last completed census for the city of Los Angeles makes the population of Los Angeles city to be over 42,000. The Queen of the Angels grows like her own semi-tropical vines." Los Angeles City a lively air.—[National City Record.

SAN DIEGO has been boasting, ever since her bay was "discovered"—away back in Tom Scott's time—that it was the nearest deep water point of water on the main to main line tide. It now appears from a Washington dispatch that there are only sixteen feet, and a new survey is wanted in order to increase the depth to twenty-four feet. It would be highly impertinent in the Times to say anything in this connection about a "Slough of Despond," and therefore we'll keep mighty mum on that subject.

WHEN the Record was first started at National City, and for several years afterward, hand presses were used, but as soon as National became the terminus of the completed transcontinental railway system, steam-power presses were substituted for the slow-poked hand machines, three of which (!) are now in active use. The Record office now has five presses and plenty of business for them all. We congratulate with our hand-press brethren, well remembering how we got our start.—[National City Record.

The rumor that one of the Record's presses is a Ramage and the other four other presses, is a base slander, then, is it?

ADVICES from Tombstone indicate that the jovial Apache is not yet through with his circus. It is set forth that even Geronimo's surrender, which we have been led to look upon as assured, would by no means end the war, and General Crook says, as to the prospect of the surrender, that it "would be simply silly to prophesy one way or the other." The amount of it seems to be that Gen. Crook has gone to see if he can persuade the raiders to give themselves up, and that he hasn't such a dead sure thing of it.

The last decade has furnished some notable phrases, as will be seen by a glance at the following collected by the Utica (N. Y.) Observer: "Usufruct"—S. J. Tilden. "Offensive Partisanship," "Public Office is a Public Trust," "Innocuous Desuetude," Grover Cleveland. It would be interesting to know the "Star-eyed Goddess's" opinion of Mr. Cleveland's latest.

The number of inmates of the county jail has now been swelled to twenty, of whom eleven are to be tried on various charges, and nine are serving out sentences. The jail is crowded, and no more applicants are desired.

Tramps and bummers have been most numerous for comfort in our town lately, and a more effectual method for expelling worthless characters from our midst should be adopted than the one of feeding them in the county jail, and locking them at the public expense.

Philadelphia Times: As to Conkling, it might be said that it is the vindictive which is looking for the man.

POWDERLY.

The Master Workman Upbraids His Followers,

AND PUTS FORTH A PLEA FOR PEACE.

The Strikers Still Stopping Trains on the Missouri Pacific—Troops Sent to St. Louis—Stormy Times Feared.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

ST. LOUIS, March 26.—Grand Master Workman Powderly has issued a secret circular "to the noble Order of Knights of Labor of America," which has just been made public. The address opens with an order to the assemblies to cease initiating new members until the return of capital and labor shall become less strained than at the present time. It is not fair, he says, to order the assemblies to bring in new members to pick up their quarrels as soon as organized and to have them expect pecuniary aid from those who helped to build the order up for noble purposes. Powderly then cautions the assemblies against receiving into their ranks employers, and warns the Knights that politicians are planning night and day how to catch the Knights for the advantage of themselves and party, and adds that to use the name of the order in a political contest is criminal, and must not occur again.

Referring to the eight-hour movement the circular says: "Assemblies of Knights must not strike for the eight-hour system on May 1st under the impression that they are obeying orders from headquarters, for such order was not and will not be given."

In conclusion the Master Workman says: "I write this circular to lay before the Order the exact condition of things. I am neither physically nor mentally capable of performing the work required of me. I am willing to do my part, but not to be asked to maintain a false position before the world any longer. One of two things must take place: either the local and district assemblies of the Order must obey its laws or I must be permitted to resign from a position which obliges me to play one part before the public and another to our members. I say to the world that I am not, and never will approve of, nor encourage, strikes, and in one day dispatches come to me, announcing strikes, from Troy, Manchester, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lynchburg, Springfield and Montreal. I must have the assistance of the order, or my most earnest efforts will fail. Until I have it, and until many evils avoided and boycotts must be avoided. No move must be made until the court of last resort can be appealed to. Threats and violence must not be made. Politicians must be hushed up or driven out. Obedience to the laws of knighthood must have the preference over those of any other order. If these things are done, the next five years will witness the complete emancipation of mankind from the curse of monopoly. All our members require secrecy, obedience, assistance, patience and courage. If with these aids you strengthen my hands I will continue in the work. If you do not desire to assist me in this way, then select a man better qualified to obey your will, and I will retire in his favor."

POWDERLY'S GENERAL APPROVED.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—General Secretary Turner, of the Executive Board of Knights of Labor, this evening, in an interview, said the instruments contained in the secret circular telegraphed from St. Louis to-day, in which assemblies are advised to cease admitting new members, and suspending moderation by the present strikers. This circular, he said, was not intended for publication, but now that it has been made public it is the sense of the board that the orders therein contained will be obeyed by the friends of the order.

PROPOSITIONS FOR PEACE.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Grand Master Workman Powderly arrived here to-night, and held a consultation with other members of the general Executive Board. "We are in favor of ending the matter now," he said, "and will submit this proposition to Mr. Gould to-morrow: That we, each appoint a committee of three, and we will appoint a similar committee. Then let these gentlemen select a seventh, they to investigate the whole affair and make recommendations, and we will agree to abide by their decision. We will not ask for the retention of any man who has been guilty of one act of violence to either person or property, for we are not organized to promote or shield wrong-doing."

THE STRIKERS.

Trains Stopped—The Freight Blockade Not Raised.

ST. LOUIS, March 26.—When the usual hour arrived this morning for the day force of switchmen to relieve the night men, at the Wabash yards, in this city, no one appeared. And a few minutes later the announcement was made that none of the force had struck. The situation at East St. Louis is becoming serious. The yardmasters of the different roads have been attempting all the morning to make up and start out freight trains, but have in every instance been prevented from carrying out their designs by the striking switchmen, who are using all means at their disposal to make the freight blockade in that city complete. The coupling-pins are removed from their positions, and the trains become separated. Switches are reversed, and the trains are run upon the wrong tracks. No serious trouble has as yet occurred, but it is understood that the officers of the law will be called upon to-day to preserve order and property, and a conflict between them and the strikers is expected to occur.

TRYING TO MOVE FREIGHT.

ST. LOUIS, March 26.—The officials of the Missouri Pacific Railway this morning, with the aid of a large force of police, succeeded in starting from this city a freight train, consisting of 108 cars.

AN ACCOMMODATION TRAIN STOPPED.

News has been received from Pacific, Franklin county, Mo., about fifty miles from this city, that the accommodation train running between here and that place was detached by strikers this morning. No particulars of the affair have been received. An engine and tender, carrying twenty-five detectives, armed with Winchester rifles, have been dispatched thither in anticipation of a conflict between the authorities and the strikers when the freight train sent out from here this morning shall reach that place.

ADVISED TO RETURN TO WORK.

A committee of three of the striking Wabash Knights of Labor called upon the chairman of their executive committee this afternoon, and informed him that they had struck, and requested him to inform them as to the proper course to pursue. The chairman informed them that it was his opinion that the Wabash men had no just cause for striking, and advised them to return to work immediately. A meeting of the Wabash men is now in session, discussing the advisability of following the advice of the chairman.

FEDERAL TROOPS SENT TO ST. LOUIS.

PITTSBURG, March 26.—A company of United States infantry passed through this city from New York this morning, en route for St. Louis. It was reported that the company was the advance guard of a force to be concentrated in the quarters threatened with riot about St. Louis and west of that city. The officer in command refused to talk on the subject.

TROUBLE ON THE GRAND TRUNK.

LONDON, Ont., March 26.—At a meeting of Grand Trunk engineers and firemen last night a delegation was appointed to wait on Hickson and request that wages be restored to the old rate in accordance with the promise made at the time of the reduction. It is rumored that a refusal will probably result in a general strike and the absolute suspension of business over the Grand Trunk system.

ANOTHER STREET-CAR STRIKE.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The employés of the Brooklyn Broadway street-car line struck this afternoon.

WASHINGTON.

The Senate Condemns the Attorney General.

IN REGARD TO REMOVALS FROM OFFICE.

An Appropriation for Surveying California Harbors—Secretary Manning Not Yet Out of Danger—Notes.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Mr. Edmunds to-day closed the debate on the resolutions reported by him from the Judiciary Committee to the Senate. The question was then on Mr. Van Wyck's amendment providing that, in all such cases of removals, the matter of confirmation shall be considered in the open session of the Senate.

Mr. Hoar raised the point that the amendment was not in order inasmuch as it changed the rules of the Senate, and no notice had been given of it.

The President pro tem. sustained the point of order, and appeal taken by Mr. Butler was laid upon the table—yeas, 31; nays, 28.

This was a strict party vote, except that Messrs. Van Wyck and Riddleberger voted with the Democrats.

Mr. Harris, having demanded a separate vote upon Mr. Edmunds's resolutions, the first resolution adopting the report of the Committee on Judiciary was adopted—yeas, 32; nays, 26.

The second resolution, condemning the refusal of the Attorney-General to send copies of the papers called for by the Senate, was adopted—yeas, 32; nays, 25.

The question being on the third resolution, declaring it to be the duty of the Senate to refuse its advice and consent to the proposed removals of officers, the document's in reference to the supposed misconduct of whom are withheld, Mr. Gray raised the point that it changed a rule of the Senate and was not in order.

The President pro tem. overruled the point of order and Mr. Gray appealed from the decision.

The appeal was not sustained.

A vote being taken on the third resolution, it was agreed to—yeas, 30; nays, 29; Mr. Mitchell of Oregon and Messrs. Riddleberger and Van Wyck voting with the Democrats.

The fourth resolution, condemning the discharge of ex-Union soldiers and the putting of men in their places who had rendered no military service to the Government, was then voted on and agreed to—yeas, 56; nays, 1 (Mr. Morgan).

Mr. Morgan offered a resolution declaring that nothing in the resolutions already adopted was to be construed as declaring that the conduct of the Attorney-General rendered him liable to impeachment, and that the Senate disclaimed the right or power to punish him by imprisonment, otherwise than by impeachment for the offense charged against him in the resolution.

On Mr. Edmunds motion, this resolution was laid on the table—yeas, 32; nays, 28.

Mr. Platt then attempted to make the bill for the admission of Washington Territory unfinished business for Monday, but some filibustering motions interfered, and at 9:30 p. m. the Senate adjourned till Monday, when Mr. Platt will attempt to get up the bill named.

FOREIGN.

Gladstone Again in Parliament—The Anarchist Uprising.

LONDON, March 26.—Gladstone appeared in the House of Commons this afternoon. Referring to the announcement made in his behalf yesterday by Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Gladstone said that the statement that he would make on April 8 would take the form of an introduction of a bill for the future government of Ireland. The announcement produced a sensation.

THE LIVERPOOL SPRING MEETING.

LIVERPOOL, March 26.—This was the second day of the Liverpool spring meeting, and the principal event was the grand national steeplechase. It was won by Old Joe; Gosling's Gamecock came in second and third.

THE BELGIAN ANARCHISTS.

BRUSSELS, March 26.—The city was placed on a war footing last evening. Inflammatory appeals to the poor to rise up and fire and pillage the town. The police this morning tore down the posters.

PARIS, March 26.—A reign of terror continues. Mobs broke into an arms manufacturing firm last night and carried away its valuable contents. Troops have been ordered everywhere, and this part of the kingdom is rapidly assuming the appearance of being under military occupation. Even the beggars throughout the country are often found armed. Arrests of strikers for disorderly conduct are constantly being made.

THE APACHES.

Another Report that the Hostiles Have Surrendered.

TOMBSTONE, A. T., March 26.—Col. White, an insurance agent, of this city, who arrived from Fort Huachuca today, reports that just before he left there this morning a courier arrived from Lieut. Maus's camp with news that all the Indians had surrendered, except Juan and Chatto, who reported have been off the reservation since 1882.

The Gould Brick Dodger, Again.

EL PASO, Tex., March 26.—Late yesterday evening ex-Gov. Saminego, of the State of Chihuahua, was robbed of $5000 by American swindlers who make their headquarters in this city. They sold him two bricks alleged to be of pure gold, when an examination showed that they were of base metal. One of the thieves named McCabe was captured on this side to-day and two thousand dollars recovered.

The Oakland Blind Asylum.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—At a meeting of Directors of the Home for Adult Blind at Oakland, yesterday, the position of Superintendent Burris was declared vacant, and T. O. Crawford, Principal of Lincoln Grammar School, of that city, was elected to fill the vacancy, and the salary of the position was increased from $150 to $175 per month.

A Chicago Murderer Hanged.

CHICAGO, March 26.—Frank Walkowski, the Pole who brutally murdered Mrs. Agnes Kledzsick last August, for the purpose of robbery; was hanged in the county jail yard here at 12:16 p. m. to-day.

Short in His Accounts.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 26.—During an argument in court it was developed that the late Capt. A. C. Nutt, who was cashier of the State Treasury at the time he was killed by Lyman Dukes, was $42,500 short in his accounts.

Santa Barbara Items.

SANTA BARBARA, March 26.—The damage to the wharf by yesterday's collision is estimated at $2000.

The safe of Smith & Johnson, grocers, was blown open last night by burglars, who, however, were interrupted by the police. No property was stolen. No arrests.

Boyton Begins His Long Swim.

RED BLUFF, Cal., March 26.—At 8 o'clock this morning Capt. Paul Boyton began his swim of 450 miles down the Sacramento river to San Francisco in his rubber suit. Crowds of people assembled on the bank to witness his departure.

A Merchant's Suicide.

GUAYMAS, Mex., March 26.—Julius Ullmann, formerly a large importing merchant of this place, committed suicide at Nogales, Ariz., this morning. Loss of money, and bad health, caused the act. He leaves a wife and four children.

An Office for Frank McCoppin.

SACRAMENTO, March 26.—Frank McCoppin has been appointed Harbor Commissioner, to succeed the late ex-Gov. Irwin.

Prewett's Second Trial.

HOLLISTER, Cal., March 26.—The second trial of John T. Prewett, for the murder of Dr. Powers, is set for June 7.

That was a grim joke on her doctor played by an old lady who died recently in London. To the physician who had attended her for thirty-five years she bequeathed a huge box, which, on being opened, was found to contain all the bottles of medicine he had ever sent her—unopened.

"BIG" BYRNES.

The Show Disowns and the "Post" Mourns Him.

The echoes of McCue's pistol still ring. F. Frost one of the proprietors of the Van Amburg show, writes:

"I never saw James McCue before seeing him at San Bernardino. Was introduced to him there, and spoke but a few words to him. He has no interest whatever in my show, and the horses are owned by us, and the band-wagon was never seen by him until he met our show at San Bernardino. Big Byrnes, his rival, came from San Francisco by boat to San Diego, on his own account, as also to Colton. The difficulty between him and McCue I know nothing about. He is in no way whatever connected with any part of my show."

BYRNES'S OBITUARY.

The San Francisco Post, which received a rather exaggerated account of the shooting, follows the dispatch with a beautiful obituary of Byrnes, which is very rich reading. It says, among other things:

"Who will sing for Buckley now? Big Byrnes was a man whose fame in the West was only equaled by his size and heroic courage when properly fortified by liquor. * * * No man before or since ever achieved such a reputation out of a capacity for getting whipped whenever a fight was going on, and no man ever deserved it better. He was a man so well beloved that, were all his friends to attend the last sad rites, the police of America would have an idle afternoon."

His bold swagger and undaunted heroism, except when a policeman was around, had endeared him to thousands, and when his light goes out the bandits of Bush street will make the welkin ring with their lamentations, and the editor of the Police Gazette will shout in trumpet tones, "Room in Valhalla, room for our hero." A pall will rest upon the Barbary Coast, a midnight gloom will descend on Telegraph Hill, and Tar Flat will sit in tree-toiling tones, "What's Providence a-givin' us?" A shudder will pass around the clubs, the Solons of the county committees will sadly and in solemn silence bite their thumbs, and the white-coated recording angels of a multitude of bacchanalian temples will blot out with their tears the record of countless unpaid libations. From many a precinct, ward and district, offerings of affection will be sent in, and all our municipal offices the busy clerk will lay aside his ledger to pen a tribute to the worth of the departed. Oh, the shame of it. Oh, the pity of it, that such a hero should prepare to meet Baldar the beautiful in such a way. But as the war-worn horse who oft has borne the brunt of battle stumbles in his stride, so when he was and breaks his neck, so when he was peacefully following a circus with his dice-box and prize-case and gleesomely spanking the ladies' behinds, Nemesis stalked up in front of him and dealt him this foul blow. He was a noble being. He had served in the United States Army, his sickly younger brother, but the bullet laid him low, and had not his head been in a state of drunken insensibility do, these many years his death would have come upon us like a rock-roller on a lizard. Peace to his ashes. Who will wield the loaded cane he swung so gaily; alas! who will sing for Buckley now?

The San Bernardino Mounting Hour says that Col. Hotchkiss went on McCue's bond, and that the trial will probably take place next week. Z. G. Peck appearing for the defense.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS.

The prominent fruit grower whose remarks in the TIMES called out a reply from L. J. Rose, answers the reply as follows:

"Mr. Rose tacitly admits the truth of my little remark that 'the Union had been handed over to the Southern Pacific.' That is so patent a scandal as to defy denial. All the law he has to do is to go into the office of the Union and ask about shipping to see how utterly subservient the Union is to the Southern Pacific.

"Mr. Rose, with sly cunning, asks what the Atlantic and Pacific has done for orange growers. Well, last year we used to pay at Riverside twenty dollars a car over Los Angeles rates. Most people used to pay a dollar a box from Riverside to Chicago over Los Angeles rates, though probably Mr. Rose did not pay any excess. The Atlantic and Pacific certainly abolished that iniquitous system of discrimination and saved many thousands of dollars to the orange growers, against the virulent protest of the Southern Pacific company. Not a year ago we used to beg humbly for inferior cars from the Southern Pacific company, and take whatever they were pleased to grant us. This year the Atlantic and Pacific has forced the Southern Pacific to give us cars that are superior to those of last year, though inferior to those of the Atlantic and Pacific, and we are getting our bills of lading only after sending the receipts to Los Angeles, but the Atlantic and Pacific gives them to us at the time of shipment. A year ago we could not get a bill of lading unless marked "Shippers load and count," which took all responsibility as to loss by thefts from the Southern Pacific company; but the Atlantic and Pacific gives us bills of lading for the exact number of boxes shipped. Not a year ago our fruit was shipped on slow trains and inferior cars, but now we are well served; but this would never have been the case but for the advent of the Atlantic and Pacific. Years of bitter experience shows me that "As to the question of lower rates on oranges, I must differ with Mr. Rose. I happen to know that the heaviest growers and shippers object to the same wholesale slaughtering in orange rates that prevail on general merchandise, because, obviously, Eastern markets would be filled with oranges to overflowing and prices ruined.

"But all this is foreign to what I started to say. Mr. Rose speaks of sticking to his old friends. He can well talk that way with his annual pass over the Southern Pacific, and with the many other favors he has for years had from the Southern Pacific Company, and is still getting. It is quite right and proper for Mr. Rose to feel and act as he does in his personal matters. He is well paid for doing so.

"But what I criticise is his prostituting the Union to his own interests. It is an undeniable fact that a great majority of the members of the Union have no reason to love the S. P. or Mr. Rose has; and that they appreciate the grinding, deadening policy that company has pursued toward the orange growers until forced by the Atlantic and Pacific into decent behavior.

"I do not know, nor do I care, how the L. and P. feels about Mr. Rose's course, but I do know how it looks to me and to the members of the union generally. He will yet feel its effects."

Notes of Stock Men.

The special car "Traveler" came in Thursday with Messrs. Miller & Sibley, proprietors of the famous Prospect Hill stock farm, Franklin, Pa., two of the most noted breeders of thoroughbred Jersey cattle in the United States. They are looking over Southern California with a business eye, and speak of its wonderful adaptability for raising fine cattle and Angora goats. They went down to Santa Monica yesterday.

Pomona.

Progress, March 25.]

The growth of Pomona may be cited as an illustration of the wonderful development of Southern California. Within the past two years this city has more than doubled its population, more than doubled its number of buildings and its taxable values have increased in the same ratio.

Pomona is one vast young orchard. The heft of its exports are yet to come. Shipments, however, have already commenced and are steadily increasing. Strawberries are now being shipped to Los Angeles and Arizona. The same is true of lemons, oranges, wine and honey.

A singular accident occurred in this city on last Monday. The parties concerned were Mr. L. E. Dewey, his horse and a cow.

The cow—a very demure and sad looking cow—was grazing on the side of the road not far from the residence of Mr. Hawkins. The beast wore a collar, and from the collar a chain hung pendant and stretched inertly across the road to a stake that delved deep down into the bowels of the earth. To the stake the chain was firmly fastened. This chain proved to be the basis of the singular accident. The cow furnished the force and Mr. Dewey and his horse were the subjects. As Mr. Dewey's galloping steed came abreast of the cow the sleepy looking critter made a movement as un-cowlike as it was unexpected.

With the agility and business tact of a Madagascar mule the moody milkmaker bounded upwards and crosswards—like a flash the chain flew taut as a gibstay in a white squall, and, to the mute astonishment of the cow, Mr. Dewey and his horse performed one of the most complicated horizontal-double-back-action acrobatic feats ever witnessed hereabouts. It is needless to say—Mr. Dewey was astonished, so was the cow—while the horse was simply paralyzed. Only the chain and the stake remained staid and dignified.

Though badly shaken up and somewhat bruised, Mr. Dewey escaped serious injury; nevertheless, it would be difficult to blame him should he boycott that cow—the cows must go.

THE CITRUS FAIR.

Pasadena's Long-Delayed Car of Exhibits

ARRIVES AT CHICAGO IN GOOD ORDER,

And Adds Another Rich Display of Southern California's Semi-Tropic Trees and Fruits.

Special Dispatch to The Times.

CHICAGO, March 26.—The Citrus fair is a grand success, and is growing in popular favor. The Pasadena car load of trees put up by C. S. Richardson arrived to-day, after being detained several days in Kansas City by the strike. The trees are very fine and in the best of condition. To-morrow will be a great day at the fair. Southern California is now playing its trump cards and taking every trick.

A RICH DISPLAY.

Pasadena's Fine Exhibit Arrives in Good Condition.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

CHICAGO, March 26.—The citrus fair exhibit is now announced as complete. To-day the car of Pasadena products, which had been delayed so long between Atchison and Kansas City, arrived here. All of its contents were in prime condition. They are now in position in Battery D. hall, and add greatly to the value of the exhibit. Among them are California lilies, English ivies, seaside grapes, fig-trees, strawberries, guavas, black bamboos, splendid specimens of lemon-trees and a grapevine 100 years old, from the San Gabriel Mission. The fruit and trees will be replenished from time to time by fresh arrivals, and an increased attendance is expected.

FROM MINNESOTA.

A Journey from Los Angeles to Minneapolis.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

MINNEAPOLIS, March 18.—On the morning of March 10th, with Phillips & Co.'s excursion, we left young goodly city with a party 160 strong, including the children. The train was consolidated with one from San Francisco at Barstow, a name subsistence for "Waterman," a point on the A. & P. road. There is no conductor of the "excursion" train, Young, Phillips & Brown, left us to the charge of the regular train hands. While we missed their attention somewhat, yet we got along nicely. The weather was fine. The road bed is good and the cars the best on the S. F. road was in excellent trim, as it always is, and its management first-class. The route as a whole is an interesting one.

The Atlantic and Pacific road runs through a region of variegated scenery, quite enjoyable, and put in comparison with the extensive deserts on the Southern Pacific route, much to be preferred. I speak, of course, of that part of the route from Colton to Albuquerque. We reached Kansas City on the Sabbath morning at 7 o'clock—just four days from Los Angeles. We had a fine company, and the good-byes at Kansas City were like those exchanged by long-time friends. We spent the day, until 6:30 p. m.—the hour of starting of trains for Chicago and St. Paul—in the city, some attending church, and others sauntering about. Eleven of our company were bound for Minnesota. The point of destination for the most of us was Minneapolis, which we reached at 7:15 p. m. Monday, making six days from Los Angeles, five of which were spent in travel. We found our friends well, and as for ourselves, much better in condition and feeling than when we started. We first struck snow in Arizona, and then again in North Western Iowa. In this city the snow is fast going. Mud and slush, incident to this latitude, are at their best. The weather is not very cheering to a Californian. Clouds of mist and sometimes rain are daily shared. We hope for bright May days by-and-bye, and all content. California fever is quite high here, and we are piled with questions in great numbers. More anon.

AT THE TABERNACLE.

Preparations for the Flower Festival Progressing Fast.

A TIMES reporter who visited the Tabernacle yesterday found it busy as a hive, and undergoing a wonderful transformation. Festoons of evergreen from the ceiling and around the walls are fast hiding the unsightly parts of the building. There are booths of generous size and artistic design wherever there is room, and they are assuming a very attractive appearance. The great auditorium will be transformed into a genuine fairyland by the time the fair opens, Tuesday night. It will be such a sight as our visitors—and ourfold-timers, too, for that matter—never saw before.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE SHAKESPEARIAN RECITAL, at Merced Hall, by Charles Rogers, which was to have come off last night, was postponed.

NADEAU HALL.—The International Fete, a Nadeau, last night, drew the largest assembly that ever gathered in that place. There was no sitting room and hardly any standing room left. Indeed, the place was so crowded as to render it, owing to defective ventilation, decidedly hot. The programme of the entertainment was not very complicated. Several national hymns were creditably rendered—"Die Wacht Am Rhein," by Miss George; "Rule Britannia," by J. S. Snook; "Star-Spangled Banner," by Mrs. Beeson; "La Marseillaise," by Madame Marra, and the Mexican national hymn, by Mrs. I. Cohn. Miss McLane gave two selections of declamation. Mrs. Buckingham sang "Ernani Involami," and an English ballad. Little Maud Reese did herself proud in "Here's a Health to Bonnie Scotland" in Highland garb. Miss Fellows sang the "Flower Song," of Faust. The entertainment opened with the "Pilgrim Fathers," a quartette by Messrs. Sweetzer, Booth, Dozier and McClure. There was also a quartette entitled "O, P. R. A." Messrs. White and Lowe and Mrs. White and Mrs. Buckingham, which were very funny. H. B. Sullivan sang "The Dear Little Shamrock." After this sandwiches and ice cream were in order. The former were dispensed by ladies dressed a la Yum-yum, and the latter taken to those who wanted to refrigerate their brains. While we missed their attention somewhat, yet we got along nicely. The weather was fine. The road is good enough for a new one. The T. & S

ENLARGED SHEET

SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1886.

THE New York Sun, in an editorial headed "Don't Go Too Far," says to the Knights of Labor: "There is danger that success may turn the heads of the Knights of Labor and of the organizations under their influence. While we uphold and stand by their fundamental purpose, we deprecate the excesses into which they may be led, and warn them against the injustice into which they may be betrayed. It cannot be allowed in this country that the man who employs labor shall not himself select it and control it free from dictation as to the individual persons whom he shall employ, nor can it be allowed that an individual organization of a protective character shall usurp the great powers of the Government and levy war on all business under the pretext of attending to its own. The leaders of labor should beware lest they go too far and defeat their own purposes. Let them regulate wages and hours of labor and resist all oppression, but leaders, even of the most sacred of causes, can not be allowed to proceed to extremes of tyranny and extortion in this country. Law and order and liberty must be maintained at every cost." This is a sound view, which the TIMES indorses without qualification.

A CORRESPONDENT of the New York Post, who is evidently a historical bookworm, makes the discovery that civil service reform is no new thing, and thus adds another proof to the wisdom of Solomon's declaration that there was no new thing under the sun. The burrower into the musty past mines from the Acts of Parliament in the reign of the second Richard a law providing that "none should obtain offices by suit or for reward, but upon desert," and that the appointing power who should "ordain, name or make Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Customers, Controller, or any other officer or Minister of the King, should be firmly sworn not to make, ordain or name any for any gift or brokage, favor or affection, and that none which pursueth by him or by other privily or otherwise, to be in any manner of office, shall be put in the same office or any other." It was of this statute, passed nearly 500 years ago, that Coke in his "Institutes" says, "It is worthy to be written in letters of gold, but more worthy to be put in due execution."

THE Atlanta Constitution some time ago spoke slightingly of Gen. Grant's memoirs, and took occasion to remark that Gen. Robert E. Lee, the beau ideal of Southern chivalry, would never have allowed even abject poverty to have opened his mouth regarding the secrets of the rebellion, nor to sound his own praises as the General must who writes the history of his own campaigns. It must be humiliating to the chivalrous editors of the Constitution to read the statement of General Jubal A. Early in the Richmond (Va.) State that Gen. Lee did intend to leave a history of his campaigns, and was only prevented by the hand of death.

THE Methodist ladies of Cincinnati gave a series of lunches last week, and each day issued a paper, furnishing the facts, plans and incidents relating to their missionary work. A novel feature of the paper was that each day it represented a different flower, as the rose, the lily, the violet, and the marguerite, or daisy. On rose day the paper used was rose-tinted, giving the symbols of the rose and illustrations of this queen of flowers. The young ladies serving the tables at the lunch wore roses. Violet day was dedicated to the pansy, and on each day there were the same distinctive feature relating to the flower chosen as that observed with the rose.

AT the fur sale of Lampson & Co., in London, on Monday last, Alaska furs were 6 per cent higher than in November, 1885, Copper Island 8 per cent higher than in last March, and Robbins Island 8 per cent higher. Copper and Robbins Islands are off the Siberian coast, in about the same latitude as the seal islands of Alaska. The islands of St. Paul and St. George, in Alaskan waters, and Bering, Copper and Robbins, in Siberian waters, furnish more than ninety per cent. of all the fur-seal skins that go into commerce.

THE Sacramento Bee refuses to regard Senator Hearst as a journalist, saying that he is "simply the owner of a newspaper." Evidently the Bee never saw Uncle George in the throes of literary composition. At such times the clank of the scissors and the swish of the paste-brush can be heard for blocks. This last statement is published on the authority of the San Francisco Post, from diagrams made on the spot.

SAYS the Sacramento Record-Union: "All Northern California will feel sincere pleasure in the success of the Southern California Citrus Exhibition in Chicago. There is no jealousy in this part of the State because of the splendid progress the southern section is making. Its advancement is the gain of the whole State." "Now you're shouting!"

LOGAN is coming to California next summer to attend the Encampment of the Grand Army. Probably some of the most distinguished men of all political parties will do the same, and every one of them ought to be induced to come to San José. Proper effort would be likely to induce the President to be one of the guests. Cleveland, Sherman, Sheridan, Logan, Howard—let them come and see us.—[San José Mercury.

Cleveland? Where did he fight for the Union?

BLIND Chaplain Milburn, in the House, the other day, opened the proceedings with a prayer that the members might be delivered from intemperance, from the "little red rose of lust," and all other carnal appetites. He has been requested to leave out all personalities from his petitions hereafter.

As to Jake.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: In your report of the Council proceedings of last Tuesday, you tell us Kaiser Kuhrts moved that the flood sufferers' claims be laid on the table. Well and good; the old adage again: "Set a thief to catch a thief." He knows how it is himself; he has studied the law and the gospel. When the city was sued for damages caused by his shameful dereliction of duty, the plaintiff could not make it stick there, because Kuhrts himself was the guilty party, and so the court pronounced, when they made him pony up damages about $4000—not being a corporate but personal act, as see City Charter. Kuhrts paid it, but soon after it was moved the city refund to Kuhrts that amount; and, without law or gospel, the steal went through and the taxpayers were out that much. No cat's paw there to lay it on the table then. Oh, no! Mr. Kuhrts was refunded that amount out of our taxes! It is evident Jake Kuhrts is not inclined to do justice to any but himself, or he would not have made such a move last Tuesday before the Council. He ought to have been quiet, and at least allowed a hearing from the flood sufferers of the 20th January, 1886, to have come before the Council.

Respectfully,
ONE WHO HATES INJUSTICE.

Complaints of a Torn-up Traveler on Temple Street.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: I would suggest that the Superintendent of Streets secure a strong vehicle, a safe horse or horses, have his life insured, bid adieu to his family and friends, screw up his courage to the sticking point and go straight out Temple street. I make this suggestion with every wish for his safe return, but feeling that it were better, in any event, that one life should be sacrificed than that the lives of the many who are compelled, or entitled to use the Temple street thoroughfare (?) should longer be placed in jeopardy.

The Cable Company have unnecessarily obstructed this street in many ways. The rights of the public have not had the slightest consideration.

Respectfully yours, CAHUENGA.

The Word Contest.

LETTER FROM A LITTLE GIRL.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: You are kind to all. Will you favor a little girl, and publish this? I exerted myself to find all the words possible in the one word "Fantasma," and I sent to the committee the result of my labors. I had all the words in the list published—and which got the prize—and three more, which I think are legitimate, as follows:

Snat, the snuff of a candle; sanat, an Indian calico, and asta, a rock or cliff.

I do not care for the money value of the prize, but I do care for the reputation of the public schools, of which I am a member and pupil. I do not like to be beaten by a girl who is but six months from Europe, and who cannot speak English. The committee did not see my words, or I would have got the prize.

A LITTLE GIRL
(Mary Graham.)

Los Angeles, March 24th.

[In reference to the foregoing communication which was referred to the committee, that body through Mr. Dobinson, reply that all the solutions of the "Fantasma" puzzle were handed to them by McLain & Lehman, sealed up as received. No solutions came direct to the committee. The committee saw no paper from Mary Graham, and even if, as she says, her solution contained all the words in the list as published, she could not have won the prize, as there was a printer's error in the newspaper list, the word "naft" being printed "matt," and Mary's other three words were disallowed in all the lists in which they occurred.

No rules had been issued for the contest, and the committee had, in making their award, to frame such rules as would admit the smallest girls on some kind of equality with the rest of the children. Yet, it is a fact that limiting the contest to the main body of Webster's Dictionary, only twenty-seven words won the prize, and those twenty-seven words were found in but two lists of the large number sent in. If, says Mr. Dobinson, the reputation of the public schools depends upon the result of a contest of this kind, the pupils must wake up and do better next time.]

A Charge with Specifications.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: In to-day's issue—under "A Common Complaint"—one instance is quoted of the efficiency of the W. U. Telegraph. Verily, the American public are a long-suffering race, if the usual telegraphic correspondence suffers as mine has done. On the 10th instant I wrote a telegram message and delivered it at the Colton office at 9 a. m. I was delayed three hours after time by a late train, drove down from Los Angeles to Santa Monica, and when I reached there found my telegram just delivered at 6:30 p.m. Two days afterward a friend telegraphed me at 9:30 a.m. from same place. I met him in the streets at Santa Monica at 5:30 p.m., before the telegram was delivered. He had pre-paid his telegram, but 45 cents was demanded of me. This I refused to pay.

I wished to send an important message to Canada at 10 a. m. one day last week. The office at Los Angeles paid no attention to the Santa Monica office, and I could not get my telegram dispatched till 2:10 p. m.

Last summer a dispatch was sent me from Canada, asking would I accept a payment of $5000 at five years at 8 per cent. per annum? The telegram dispatched from Canada was at 6 per cent. My agent ascertained that it was dispatched as 6 per cent., and the fault was at this end of the line. By this I lost 2 per cent. on $5200 for five years. Let business men visiting Santa Monica take warning.

I have other complaints of a like nature, but let this suffice for the present.

Usufruct Knuckled Down.

Chicago Tribune.]

Two Phrases were out walking for their health, when they chanced to meet in a narrow lane. There was mud on each side of the Path, and the more Venerable of the two phrases wanted the Other to step aside and allow him to pass.

"I am older and of more Importance than you," he explained, "and it is your Duty to give Way to me."

The younger and sturdier phrase replied, haughtily: "It is you who must step Aside into the mud. I may be younger, but I am even more Pretentious and Ponderous than you. Get out of my way! Who are you, anyhow?"

The elder phrase drew himself up sternly, and replied in a crushing manner: "I am 'Usufruct'!"

Instead of being abashed, the younger phrase replied by a cold, harsh laugh. "Ah," he sneered, "are you that old relic? Well, I'd have you know that I am 'Innocuous Desuetude.' Get out of the way!"

The venerable phrase made no response, but Bowed his head and stepped aside sadly into the mud. "I was indeed presumptuous," he murmured to himself, as the other stalked proudly away.

The Yuma Bridge.

San Diegan.]

Justo Palacio, the alleged bridge burner, told parties in Los Angeles last October that he entertained a deep hatred for the American people in general, and to get even would burn the railroad bridge at Yuma on his way to Mexico. He boasted to a party at Tiajuana that he had burned the bridge. Witnesses from Sacramento, Los Angeles, Yuma and other places were examined, and their testimony conclusively fastened the guilt on the prisoner. The Yuma bridge, it will be remembered, connected the county of San Diego with Arizona. The bridge was set on fire in this county, and, therefore, the trial will take place in this city. Deputy Sheriff Wm. Smith, of Yuma, arrived here on Monday evening with a warrant for Palacio, on a charge of murder, as he is supposed to have disemboweled a man recently at Yuma. Palacio is evidently a bad man, and it is to be hoped that the law will be strictly enforced in his case, by giving him what he deserves.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

SANTA ANA.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SANTA ANA, March 23.—The days are just right for work. Vineyards are leaving out. Trees of all kinds betoken an abundance of fruit the coming season. The roads are good, and everybody is on the move; shipping and shopping are lively.

The barley crop is very promising, and a larger acreage has not been sown for years. Cheap hay next year.

A new firm takes quarters in L. Gilmacher's old stand April 1st. Mr. G. takes the next door south.

The new Gage block is now occupied by the Misses Reinhaus with their millinery in the east store, and the Reinhaus Bros. in the other.

Business in Santa Ana is increasing and business houses are multiplying, all in keeping with the growing prosperity of our valley.

C. Z. Culver was on our streets last Saturday, looking after the final shipment of fruit to the Chicago Citrus Fair. He feels hopeful as to the benefits to Southern California from this fair.

Orange shipment is not quite so lively as it was some weeks ago, but some shipments are being made.

Dr. Fackler is preaching with great acceptance to the Presbyterian congregations in Santa Ana and Tustin.

Rev. Spaight, the bachelor preacher, is very popular in his mission work in these two towns among the Episcopalians.

Rev. Van Cleve has been delivering some very interesting sermons in the Methodist Church on subjects calculated to instruct all classes.

The Baptists have started a mission in Orange, and A. M. Petty, the Santa Ana pastor, preached last Sabbath.

Rev. L. D. Garvin has been preaching a series of sermons for the Christian Church for several evenings. Five converts are the results of the meeting.

Mr. Garvin, to the great regret of his many friends, leaves next Monday for San Francisco, to take charge of a church there. Ira Chandler, our popular grocer, is bound to make the East End boom. In addition to the two wooden buildings moved upon his lots on East Fourth street, he is erecting a substantial brick building, to be occupied as a hardware store. William Spurgeon will soon commence the erection of another brick building. New houses are going up in various parts of our valley.

Geo. Irvine returned Sunday evening last from San Francisco, where he went some days before to be with his brother James Irvine in his last sickness, but did not reach there until after the death of his brother.

S. L. Eddy and B. F. Maxon, of Tustin, left Tuesday for the East. They are both jolly fellows among the boys in old Michigan.

Mr. D. Harding, a leading attorney of Atlantic City, Iowa, and Mr. Persinger, a banker of Central City, Nebraska, made the tour of Florida and other Southern States during the past two months, with a view to investment in Florida lands and timber lands in other States, but they were so disappointed when they reached that land of alligators and frozen oranges that they decided not to invest. Mr. Harding is now here, looking up a place for a home. He says Florida oranges, such as he chanced to get while there, don't compare with California oranges. He thinks Florida is largely overrated.

SNOW AND RAIN WITHOUT FROST—A TRICKY STREAM.

Correspondence of the Times.]

ANNANDALE, March 20.—On the night of the 18th we had a stormy time with rain and snow. On the 19th it snowed all day—a very wet snow, much of it melting as it fell; otherwise it would have been at least a foot deep. The deepest was three inches. The thermometer got as low as 36 above zero, that is as low as it has been any time this year.

The peach and almond trees had mostly dropped their blossoms. Some varieties of peaches which were in full bloom were not hurt; neither were the tenderest flowers.

The water that fell amounted to 2½ inches. The rain previous to the last, our mountain stream was a torrent, the water being the highest witnessed by white men in this section of country. It changed the course of its channel in many places, tearing out trees, a foot thick, by the roots. The water which had run out of Annandale, three miles below Cabazon Station, for two years past, all at once disappeared, in less than three-fourths of a mile from the springs where it rises. The next morning after it ceased to rain the stream was gone (to Davy Jones's locker). One of the members of the Cabazon Water and Land Company, who was here, went to look after the water. He came back looking almost like a corpse. He was out of heart, out of breath, and offered to sell out for a mess of pottage. He was told that the channel where the water is running a long time forms a kind of cement, and when that is broken the water hunts bed-rock, in these mountain cañons. His stream had gone hunting.

ALHAMBRA—SAN GABRIEL.

Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SAN GABRIEL, March 26.—The school district matter is settled. The new "academy" it is proposed to erect in the vicinity of Miss Stoneman's place.

A petition is being circulated in favor of Mrs. McCormick, sister of R. J. Bailey, being appointed postmistress of San Gabriel, vice Mrs. Morton, resigned. If we must loose Mrs. Morton, such an appointment would be a good one.

A. C. Weeks has already sold the greater part of his orange nursery stock to Pomona orchardists.

Herr Jarchow, of San Gabriel, captured the gold medal at the Pasadena fair on the orange question.

San Diego Doings.

Sun, March 24.]

The whaling crew were paid off yesterday for the season and discharged. The season was a profitable one.

The funds in the county treasury were counted yesterday by the usual commission, with the following result: Cash on hand, $94,285.56; in gold, $73,433 83; in silver, $1,738.80; in currency, $19,113.

Union, March 24.]

The new lamps for the electric-light towers arrived here yesterday morning, and are being rapidly hung in place.

The Ranger leaves the harbor to-day to continue the coast survey. Her destination is at a point about 150 miles south of San Diego bay.

Plans for a new opera house, to be built on Sixth street, have just been completed by Architect Blunden. It will have 50 feet frontage, and 100 feet deep, and will be finished inside in good style. The plans for the stage and its appurtenances are not yet complete, but it is said this part of the structure will be finished with all late improvements. The building is to cost about $6000.

Our hotels are crowded, and furnished rooms in private houses are in great demand. Two hundred furnished rooms in a favorable locality would pay for themselves within a very short time, and no doubt prove a paying investment. The transient population of our city is so large that, notwithstanding our many good hotels, an unwary stranger who neglects to engage a room immediately upon his arrival here, is often compelled to sit in a chair through the night for the want of a bed. A landlord of one of our prominent hotels, said, yesterday: "I could use thirty-five more rooms to splendid advantage;" and such is the case all over the city.

A large letter mail from San Francisco—the accumulation of three days, held over on the road—reached us yesterday. It is perhaps useless to hope for any remedy for the disgraceful service between San Francisco and San Diego, as the matter of transfer at Colton must be referred to Washington for proper authority to carry the sacks from one depot to the other. Meanwhile the express company gets its letters and papers through on time, and business men requiring a reliable service should notify their San Francisco correspondents to send by express.

The Confiding Tourist.

Ontario Record.]

The remarks of the tenderfeet who get off the trains here to take a look at the beauties of a semi-tropic colony are often amusing in a high degree. Some ladies gathered a few geraniums at the Land Office a few days since, and inquired with surprise if they had actually bloomed right out of doors there this winter. They seemed to think we kept them under glass, and set them out for effect when the trains passed. One eager youth alighted from the Atchison train, Thursday, took a look at the peppers on the avenue, and said, "Those are orange trees, I suppose?" We assured him that they were, and he went on his way rejoicing at his first glimpse of the "bough with the golden fruit."

CLEVELAND'S INCOMPETENCE.

Unable to Grapple With Large Public Questions.

Gath in Cincinnati Enquirer.]

Mr. Haskell is one of the three men who, in their youth, bought the Boston Herald and revived it, and they have made an able newspaper of it. They have supported Cleveland from the outset, and I judge that the reason they qualify their opinion now is that the editor has been on the spot and has seen the victorious Democratic party being "played for a Chinaman" by a man who has no other coherence than what newspaper support has made for him. As Governor of New York Grover Cleveland was distinguished for nothing whatever. His State papers there have passed into complete neglect. What made him was a revolt in the Republican party, caused by the death of General Garfield, whereby Cleveland received 195,000 majority, the whole of which he lost when he came to run for President, for in that short interval he had been partially found out. When he came to Albany he was dismayed by the questions around him, and could not see the day before his face. But the exigencies of the Presidential campaign were so close before that nobody much had a chance to look at Cleveland at all. He did not loom up as the candidate of the Democracy until Mr. Blaine had been nominated. Then, in the desperate attempt of the Mugwumps to show their power, they fell upon Cleveland as the only person they could support. They were led to this by Barlow and some of the lawyers who had got favors out of Cleveland. Therefore, when the Democratic Convention met at Chicago, it was surrounded by temptations to nominate a man of whom they had no knowledge whatever. John Kelly notified them that he would break the party to pieces rather than let Tammany Hall participate in the nomination—that old regular organization took its train and went off home. In the city of Washington Cleveland finds that he has not the brains, not the knowledge, not the friends, not the temperament or the heart to attract anybody to him; He has, therefore, assumed to cheat the whole country by the aid of the mugwump journals, and you can see by the attitude of the Boston Herald that they have at last found out that to the mugwumps he is King Log, while to the Democrats he is King Stork.

It has now been about three or four weeks since I made the discovery that we had the champion dunce at the head of this government, and there was a great deal of cat-calling and squealing when I told the naked truth. They are coming around, however, and it will not be long before the belief of observers here will be the conviction of the whole land that in trying to find an independent quantity we have found a great squash. Nobody here has the least idea that Cleveland will ever again be nominated for President. If that idea still lingers in the mind of anybody, the ticket ought to be modified according to the facts, and be, "Dan Lamont for President; Grover Cleveland for Vice-President." Dan is the only man about Washington who finds any encouragement to give Grover his company. You see in papers of all shades that Carlisle is being looked to by the Democrats as their possible candidate. Mr. Morrison's friends have got up another boom for him. The few advocates around these streets for Cleveland proclaim that the greatest thing he has ever done has been to destroy his own Cabinet and the Democratic Senate and Congress. They say a man who is smart enough to break all these forces up must still be strong in the hearts of the people. There are indications here that John Sherman is the second thought of nearly all the Republicans. But it is not to be escaped by any perception that Blaine still holds the great multitude of the Republicans in pawn. His great run in 1884, and the absurd pretensions of the man who beat him, and that stiffening up of party lines which follows a mutiny, tend greatly to help him to another nomination.

Riverside.

Enterprise, March 25.]

Fifteen carloads of oranges were shipped from here last evening to connect with the orange special at Colton.

The grading for the new depots at this place has been finished. Work will be commenced at once on the passenger depot.

Rural Press, March 25.]

Yesterday a special fast fruit train left Riverside for the east, via the Union Pacific Railway — eight cars loaded with Riverside oranges, four carloads packed and shipped by Griffin & Skelley—the total shipments yesterday by this firm being 1400 boxes. As the most of these were Navels, the value of these four cars alone was over four thousand dollars. Griffin & Skelley have sold over one hundred carloads of oranges this season already, and hold nearly as many more still on the trees.

Quite an interesting trial came off yesterday before Judge Earp, who presides in the absence of Judge Conway. John Boyd was the plaintiff to recover a sum of money loaned to a newspaper syndicate, the payment of which was promised in two weeks. As nearly as many years had elapsed, Mr. Boyd invoked the majesty of the law to secure his rights, and after the trial before a jury Judge Earp thought he ought to receive back what in a moment of trustful innocence he had confided to defendants. Verdict for the entire sum with costs was given.

Beecher on Advertising.

"* * * I am glad that the doctor cured him. I am glad that the doctor put it into the paper that he could cure him. And if any doctor is certain he can cure such diseases and don't put it in the paper, I am sorry. What a pity it would have been had this doctor come to town with his wealth of science and experience, and gone away leaving him uncured! What a pity it would have been if he had been so prejudiced against advertising as to read the responsible certificates of the doctor and give him the go-by as a quack! What are newspapers for, if not to circulate information? What more valuable information can a newspaper give than to tell a sick man where he can be cured? If a man has devoted his life and his labor to the study of a special class of diseases, the necessity of his saying so becomes all the more pressing. His duty to advertise become imperious. A really able man, whatever be his gifts, makes a great mistake if he fails to use those gifts through want of advertising."

The above extract, from an able article by the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, embodies a sound view of the necessity of advertising. Suppose Dr. Davis had not advertised, and published numerous certificates from well-known persons whom he has cured, how many would know, in a place with so large and so transient a population as Los Angeles, that there was a doctor among us who could cure that most troublesome of all complaints—catarrh—whether it affects the nose, throat or lungs? How many of our leading citizens would now be in their graves from consumption if they had not learned of his successful treatment, with medical inhalations, through advertising? Dr. Davis has been located for two years at 45½ N. Spring street, this city, doing his good work, and we hope that he will continue to prosper as in the past—Adv.

He has sent us invoices [illegible] truthfully, from one to five feet in length, filled with bargains [illegible] purchased. To say that the footings and amounts of these bills [illegible] to scare one out of a year's growth, is placing it only mild. We [illegible] to invite some of our good school mathematicians to reckon [illegible] way of practice, a few of these preponderate invoices. It [illegible] to make room.

We must rid ourselves of a good part of our present stock.

We must sell off a large load of goods and get room.

We have no choice in the matter, and if prices will do it, we are going to give the public an ovation.

Our Riddance Sale

will long be remembered by reason of the gigantic slaughter [illegible] Prices during the sale will reach the lowest possible level.

Our Riddance Sale

will place bargains in the hands of the people which could not have been conceived.

Our Riddance Sale

will be the means of our being able to receive the goods bought in New York by our D. A. Hamburger by getting more space and room.

Our Riddance Sale

will prevent overcrowding our even now too small quarters [illegible] goods which will soon be upon us.

Our Riddance Sale

will cause our patrons to exclaim, "That the People's Store, [illegible] will lose money to sell goods!" or, in other words, are ready [illegible] public some recompense for the public patronage it has received [illegible] We find the necessity to carry out the plans mapped out by our [illegible] buyer.

Look to the local columns of this paper and post yourself [illegible] we desire to rid ourselves of. They will be cheerfully sold to you, [illegible] they go, will not have any reason to exclaim,

"GOOD RIDDANCE"

Benton's Hair Grower.

All who are bald, all who are becoming bald, all who do not want to be bald, all who are troubled with dandruff, or itching of the scalp; should use Benton's Hair Grower. Eighty per cent. of those using it have grown hair. It never fails to stop the hair from falling. Through sickness and fevers the hair sometimes falls off in a short time, and although the person may have remained bald for years, if you use Benton's Hair Grower according to directions you are sure of a growth of hair. In hundreds of cases we have produced a good growth of hair on those who have been bald and glazed for years. We have fully substantiated the following facts:

We grow hair in eighty cases out of a hundred, no matter how long bald.

Unlike other preparations, it contains no sugar of lead, or vegetable or mineral poisons.

It is a specific for falling hair, dandruff and itching of the scalp.

The Hair Grower is a Hair food, and its composition is almost exactly like the oil which supplies the hair with its vitality.

DOUBLE AND TRIPLE STRENGTH.

When the skin is very tough and hard, and the follicle is apparently effectually closed, the single strength will sometimes fail to reach the papilla; in such cases the double or triple strength should be used in connection with the single, using them alternately.

Price, single strength, $1; double strength, $2; triple strength, $3. If your druggists have not got it we will send it prepaid on receipt of price.

A Sensible Move at McDonell's Drug Store, 271 North Main Street.

The enormous profit usually realized by the retail drug business is an imposition on the buying public, and is far in excess of Eastern prices. The purest drugs can and shall be sold as low as in Chicago or New York. For instance, we will sell you—

One pound best gum camphor, 25 cents—regular price, 60 cents.

One bottle Hoyt's cologne, 15 cents—regular price, 25 cents.

One cake Colgate's cashmere bouquet soap, 25 cents—regular price, 35 cents.

Our prices for everything else are all as low as in the East.

Prescriptions compounded by experts only, and 400 per cent. profit is not charged. Remember! McDONELL, The Druggist.

The Woman's Exchange.

First—Is intended to benefit deserving and industrious women by affording an opportunity to dispose of their work to persons who are willing to purchase useful articles.

Second—The Exchange can furnish choice articles of food cooked to order, ready made fancy articles, and everything that represents woman's work—and here is an opportunity for the generous-hearted to do a gracious act and yet get the full worth of their money. The commission for selling is barely enough to pay the small expenses of the Exchange. Call and see the work. 17 S. Main street.

Wellington Coal.

Be sure and ask your dealer for this economical fuel. It can be used in any ordinary grate or cook stove, and burns up to clean, white ash—no clinkers or soot. One ton of it will give better satisfaction and outlast two cords of the best stovewood, or a ton and a half to two tons of any other coal sold in this market.

Trained Servants—The Best Way to Secure the Chinese.

The Immigration Association of Southern California has taken advantage of the low rates to the Atlantic seaboard and is about to dispatch a second special agent to England (one being already there) to bring out a large number of trained servants to take places here at from $15 to $20 per month. We must be able to guarantee them places before they start. Any who want now to secure reliable help can make the arrangement by signing an agreement to employ one or more of these girls as long as they are satisfactory. The names of persons applying for servants will be entered in a book and they will be supplied in the order in which the applications are received. The office of the association is 37 N. ON MONDAY,

AND DURING THE WEEK, WE WILL INAUGURATE

Our Great Riddance Sale!

Its success is beyond a question of doubt, as we are forced into this sale—yes, nearly scared—into its creation by the following reasons:

Our Mr. D. A. Hamburger, now in New York, is, we fear, being enticed by the offer of too many bargains. He has sent us invoices that measure, truthfully, from one to five feet in length, filled with bargains which he has purchased. To say that the footings and amounts of these bills are enough to scare one out of a year's growth, is placing it only mild. We would like to invite some of our good school mathematicians to reckon and add up, by way of practice, a few of these preponderate invoices. It behooves us now to make room.

We must rid ourselves of a good part of our present stock.

We must sell off a large load of goods and get room.

We have no choice in the matter, and if prices will do it, we are ready to give the public an ovation.

Our Riddance Sale

will long be remembered by reason of the gigantic slaughter we will make. Prices during the sale will reach the lowest possible level.

Our Riddance Sale

will place bargains in the hands of the people which could never have been conceived.

Our Riddance Sale

will be the means of our being able to receive the goods bought in New York by our D. A. Hamburger by getting more space and room.

Our Riddance Sale

will prevent overcrowding our even now too small quarters for carloads of goods which will soon be upon us.

Our Riddance Sale

will cause our patrons to exclaim, "That the People's Store, when it must, will lose money to sell goods!" or, in other words, are ready to return to the public some recompense for the public patronage it has received in the past. We find the necessity to carry out the plans mapped out by our New York buyer.

Look to the local columns of this paper and post yourself of the goods we desire to rid ourselves of. They will be cheerfully sold to you, and when they go, will not have any reason to exclaim,

"GOOD RIDDANCE!"

Curtain poles given away with 6 yards of curtain net or a pair of curtains.

PEOPLE'S STORE.

A. Hamburger & Sons,

41, 43 and 45 Spring Street, Los Angeles.

WE HAVE GOT TO GET OUT

As the store is rented and possession will be given April 15. Therefore, as we do not wish to move our stock,

We Will Close it Out Regardless of Cost.

No such opportunity was ever given in this city to buy staple goods at such GIVE AWAY PRICES. We will make the "dry bones" of high prices rattle. We have no second-hand or shop worn goods to work off on the people. Our goods are new, bought for cash, and we propose to give the public a benefit such as it has never had in this city.

We Invite Hotel Keepers, Restaurant Keepers, Boarding House Keepers and The Public Generally

To take advantage of this

SLAUGHTER OF TINWARE, GLASSWARE, AGATEWARE, TABLEWARE, BIRD CAGES, PICTURE FRAMES, BRACKETS,

Benton's Hair Grower.

All who are bald, all who are becoming bald, all who do not want to be bald, all who are troubled with dandruff, or itching of the scalp; should use Benton's Hair Grower. Eighty per cent. of those using it have grown hair. It never fails to stop the hair from falling. Through sickness and fevers the hair sometimes falls off in a short time, and although the person may have remained bald for years, if you use Benton's Hair Grower according to directions you are sure of a growth of hair. In hundreds of cases we have produced a good growth of hair on those who have been bald and glazed for years. We have fully substantiated the following facts:

We grow hair in eighty cases out of a hundred, no matter how long bald.

Unlike other preparations, it contains no sugar of lead, or vegetable or mineral poisons.

It is a specific for falling hair, dandruff and itching of the scalp.

The Hair Grower is a Hair food, and its composition is almost exactly like the oil which supplies the hair with its vitality.

DOUBLE AND TRIPLE STRENGTH.

When the skin is very tough and hard, and the follicle is apparently effectually closed, the single strength will sometimes fail to reach the papilla; in such cases the double or triple strength should be used in connection with the single, using them alternately.

Price, single strength, $1; double strength, $2; triple strength, $3. If your druggists have not got it we will send it prepaid on receipt of price.

A Sensible Move at McDonell's Drug Store, 271 North Main Street.

The enormous profit usually realized by the retail drug business is an imposition on the buying public, and is far in excess of Eastern prices. The purest drugs can and shall be sold as low as in Chicago or New York. For instance, we will sell you—

One pound best gum camphor, 25 cents—regular price, 60 cents.

One bottle Hoyt's cologne, 15 cents—regular price, 25 cents.

One cake Colgate's cashmere boquet soap, 25 cents—regular price, 35 cents.

Our prices for everything else are all as low as in the East.

Prescriptions compounded by experts only, and 400 per cent. profit is not charged

Remember! McDONELL, The Druggist.

The Woman's Exchange.

First—Is intended to benefit deserving and industrious women by affording an opportunity to dispose of their work to persons who are willing to purchase useful articles.

Second—The Exchange can furnish choice articles of food cooked to order, ready made fancy articles, and everything that represents woman's work—and here is an opportunity for the generous-hearted to do a gracious act and yet get the full worth of their money. The commission for selling is barely enough to pay the small expenses of the Exchange. Call and see the work. 17 S. Main street.

Wellington Coal.

Be sure and ask your dealer for this economical fuel. It can be used in any ordinary grate or cook stove, and burns up to clean, white ash—no clinkers or soot. One ton of it will give better satisfaction and outlast two cords of the best stovewood, or a ton and a half to two tons of any other coal sold in this market.

Trained Servants—The Best Way to Boycott the Chinese.

The Immigration Association of Southern California has taken advantage of the low rates to the Atlantic seaboard and is about to dispatch a second special agent to England (one being already there) to bring out a large number of trained servants to take places here at from $15 to $20 per month. We must be able to guarantee them places before they start. Any who wish now to secure reliable help can make the arrangement by signing an agreement to employ one or more of these girls as long as they are satisfactory. AUCTION SALE ON PREMISES.

The Don Fernando Sepulveda Homestead,

One mile east of Sepulveda Railroad Station and four miles from city boundary.

SALE TO TAKE PLACE ON

Monday, April 5th

AT 11 A. M.

200 acres of this excellent land will be offered at auction in about five acre lots, with privilege of more. It is conceded by the best judges of land in this vicinity, notably by Mr. H. E. Crow, of the celebrated peach orchard, one mile south; Mr. Lacy, on adjoining property; Messrs. Thom and Ross, east, and by many uninterested parties, also good judges of this class of land, that for all kinds of fruits and vines there is no better land in the State. The water right to nearly every acre is fully secured, and is considered ample for the above purposes.

The situation, having a Southern aspect and commanding a view of the whole valley, is most desirable for healthy and pleasant homesteads.

It is the desire of the owner to state nothing but facts in regard to this land, and most cordially invites the closest inspection. Being resident on the spot he—the Rev. Geo. Haugh—will be glad to show intending purchasers the property at any time, Sundays excepted.

Free carriages to and from the property will leave the front of Temple block at 9 a. m. on day of sale.

Terms of Sale—Cash for all purchases less than $1000; above $1000 one-half cash and balance in one year, at 7 per cent interest. Ten per cent cash on fall of auctioneer's hammer; balance on receipt of deed.

Title absolutely perfect. Bargain and sale deed will be given with each purchase.

BRIEFS.

No deaths in city or country yesterday.

The Orizaba sails south to-day, and north on Monday.

There is no farther news as to the public building for Los Angeles.

A Warner Bros. & Crosby excursion arrives from the East, Monday night.

The express from the north was an hour late yesterday; that from the east, on time.

Filed in the Recorder's office yesterday, 30 deeds, 11 mortgages, 7 satisfactions, and 5 miscellaneous papers.

The examination of Chas. Gassen has been continued indefinitely, neither side being able to attend to the case yesterday.

David Maims, B. Pattee and B. Serma were arrested by Officer Romans, yesterday, for running a laundry without license. They put up $10 each.

M. W. Criss was brought in by Officer Curran at midnight from the new depot, somewhat intoxicated and badly battered. He says he was robbed of a watch and chain and $30 or $40 in cash.

Police business is quiet as a general rule. Last night a number of lodgers were accommodated. A good-looking young woman, sick and inebriated, was taken in for medical attention.

The Third Ward Anti-Chinese Club was organized in the Mayor's courtroom last evening. The officers elected were: President, W. M. Hawkins; Vice-President, S. B. Johnson; Secretary, B. F. French. Major Isaac Kinley and others spoke.

The determination said to have been reached by the ladies of the Flower Festival management to charge admission to the participants, causes many kicks. The proposed action is voted narrow and unhandsome, to put it in its mildest form.

The Charms of Santa Monica.

Our Eastern visitors should not fail to visit Santa Monica. They will find it a delightful place to spend a few days or weeks. Several Eastern ladies have learned to swim during January and February. FIRST STREET.

Property-Owners Agree on the Upper Grade.

HARMONIOUS MEETING LAST NIGHT.

1570 Front Feet Favor a Grade of One in Eleven; 1220 Front Feet Against.

Pursuant to adjournment, there was a meeting of the First-street property-owners in the Council chamber last evening, to consider the problem of how to get through, under or around the big hill. There has been a volcanic sort of feeling at all the preceding deliberations; but last night there was the utmost harmony. There were about twenty interested gentlemen present. Mr. Robson occupied the chair.

The committee appointed to see about the proposed curved turnout—or "rattlesnake road," as Mr. Mesmer terms it—reported, informally, against the practicability of such a turnout. Mr. Robson then took the floor, and spoke as follows in favor of the upper grade:

"I have long considered the surmounting of the hill by a graded street not only a possibility, but a great public necessity. For this reason I have given the matter much attention, to learn the pros and cons. I have been figuring carefully on the cost. Some very wild stories have been circulated as to the expense, but what I am going to tell you is facts, such as you will learn by going to the surveyors and contractors. There are seven blocks affected on First street. The cost of curbing at 40c per foot, will be $1832. As to the cuts, the City Surveyor says there will be 30,000 to 40,000 cubic yards of earth to move. The fills are close at hand, so that there will be no expensive long hauling. At 30 cents per cubic yard, the highest figure, the whole cost of putting the street through the hill will be just a little over $12,000—less than $3 per front foot, including crossings. This upper grade of one foot in eleven is something better than I ever expected to get. It is a surprise to all the friends of First street, and to its enemies as well. The proposition to tunnel the hill means no street. Figure it out any way you will, and that is what it amounts to. To bring the matter to a head now, Mr. Chairman, I move that it is the sense of this meeting to recommend to Council that the following grade of First street be established: From Fort street to Charity, 1 in 11, which will meet the present grade of Charity; from Charity to Bunker Hill avenue, a straight line as at present; from Bunker Hill to Hope, 1 in 11; from Hope a straight line intersecting Flower in a 15-foot cut; from Flower street 1 in 11 to wherever it comes out, which will be about at Beaudry street."

Chorus: "I second the motion."

Mr. Blanchard moved to amend to adopt the lower grade clear through (1 in 16). He got no second.

Mr. Robson: "The upper grade doesn't suit me, but it is the best we can get, and I am willing to take it. A half loaf is better than no bread, and the lower grade is simply impossible to be obtained."

Mr. Kiefer: "The chief merit of the hill property is its elevation. To cut it down would be suicidal. Those who want to be on the flats can be easily accommodated in this big city. Those who have gone up on the hill have done so for the elevation and the view. To ruin their property for the sake of the people back of the hill would be wrongful. That hill is for residence purposes, not for business. It seems to me the height of absurdity to talk of cutting a great gap in that hill, that the San Fernando farmers may get to town. There are level routes for them to use. We have got to recognize physical facts—where there are hills we must treat them as hills. We don't need a level road there. We don't want our residence street filled with a train of heavily-loaded hay and grain wagons. We want a good, practicable street for a residence section. One in eleven is an excellent grade for all our needs."

The question was then called and put on Mr. Robson's motion, each property-owner voting his front feet on First street. The vote was as follows: To adopt the upper grade—Messrs. Schumacher, Shrier, Gardner, Von Keith, Hopperstead, Robson, 165 feet each; Messrs. Kiefer, Holmes, Stemps, Davis, 145 feet each. Against adoption—Messrs. Blanchard and Lord, 660 feet each. Total ayes, 1570 feet; total noes, 1320 feet. The total frontage interested is 4620 feet. Those not present in person or by proxy were Messrs. Wicks, Wheeler, Day, Sparr, Wright, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Hopkins, and the lots opposite Messrs. Von Keith and Wright.

Mr. Robson thought this decision should be binding.

Mr. Blanchard, who lives back of the hill, said he was strongly opposed to anything steeper than one in sixteen.

The following committee was appointed to carry the matter before the Board of Public Works to-day: Messrs. Kiefer, Gardner, Schumacher and Shrier; Mr. Robson being added, on Dr. Widney's motion.

Mr. Robson: "Gentlemen, before we adjourn, let me congratulate you on having come to an understanding so well. I have been working at this thing for three years, and until I met Mr. Gardner I never found an old resident who believed First street would ever be opened over the hill. But it will be done, now, as sure as you live. It only needs a little faith, backed by a little works, and we shall have the consummation so devoutly to be wished."

MAGIC CHANGES.

A Sample of Southern California Development.

The wonderfully rapid development of Los Angeles and its suburbs is an eye-opener to the citizens, as well as to the random visitor. The man who goes to sleep here for a year is in Rip Van Winkle's plight at its close. Less than three months ago a TIMES reporter trotted all over what is called the Garvanza tract, gunning for rabbits. The whole place was then given over to the sagebrush, and the conejo. Yesterday the T. r. made his next visit to the tract, in company with Ralph Rogers, the head of the company which is developing it. A wonderful change had taken place. Streets had been laid out, lots marked off, and a superb avenue, 100 feet wide, graded for half a mile. The tract covers 1300 acres, of which 100 is comprised in the town-site. The latter is situated on the fine plateau just north of the L. A. and S. G. V. R. R. where it sweeps around to cross the Arroyo Seco. The site is a beautiful one, and promises to be covered with a pleasant town. Half a dozen buildings are already up, and eight carpenters are at work all the time. The company puts up houses for those who wish, many of them on time. There is a block reserved for a church; and a very desirable location for a hotel with rustic grounds and a little live-oak grove. The avenue is a "daisy." It leaves Pasadena avenue where the latter plunges down into the valley to cross the arroyo; curves northward a few hundred yards, and then shoots straight across to the bluff bank of the arroyo. Here Mr. Rogers will build a bridge 825 feet long, 20 feet wide, and 50 feet above the water; thus connecting with Pasadena by a much pleasanter and shorter route than the present. A five-cent toll over the bridge will be charged. The avenue will also be extended from the town-site westwardly through the beautiful Garvanza valley to the Verdugo cañon road—100 feet wide all the way. The company has widened Pasadena avenue to eighty feet through its property, and it is hoped that other property-owners will do the same. A hack line is running to Garvanza from this city, fare for the round trip of eight miles ten cents. An extra hack will be added to the line to-day.

There is a great deal of work and money being expended, also, in building winding drive-ways up and over the smooth, swelling hills on the west side of the arroyo between the river and Garvanza. This is being done by Mr. Morgan, of the Highland Park tract.

Eastern visitors who will drive out there, or go out over the Second street cable road, remembering that both sections were absolutely waste wilderness a year ago, will get an idea of how we do things in Southern California.

Daily Bulletin Orange-Growers' Protective Union.

LOS ANGELES, March 26, 1886.

All principal Eastern cities show a strong market for the better class of oranges. There is considerable inquiry for good cured lemons, running 300 to 360 count per box, well packed in paper. Such lemons are good property, and all indications point towards remunerative prices for them during the next 30 days. It is not best to ship in carload lots, but 50 to 100 boxes of lemons in each car of oranges when possible. Oranges are selling to-day in the East at $2 to $2.25 for smutty, $2.50 to $2.25 for good, $2.50 to $3 for fancy, Navels $4.50 to $5. Lemons $2.25 to $3 per box.

Found the Barrels Handy.

The Colton Semi-Tropic, speaking of the McCue-Byrnes shoooting scrape, says: "A large crowd were in Nash's yesterday playing billiards, patronizing the bar and otherwise amusing themselves when the shooting scrape occurred, but within about one-quarter of a second after the first shot was fired the room was vacated, with the exception of the spaces behind the barrels of whisky, where a layer of men four deep could be found who had no desire to stop a bullet from any man's pistol. One man was afterwards heard to exclaim that he never before knew of the amount of consolation and protection contained in a whisky barrel."

A Young Larcenist.

Geo. W. Outtrim, a boy who is too lazy to work for $1 a day or help his mother along, but who does not disdain to steal anything that is neither too heavy or too hot, was yesterday sentenced to sixty days in the county jail by Justice Austin for stealing fifty feet of garden hose. This young loafer has a decent mother, who would like to see him placed in a reformatory. Unfortunately before we shall have such an institution in Southern California this young man may have taken up board and lodging for an indefinite period in San Quentin.

Careless Drivers.

Drivers of milk wagons drive altogether too fast through our crowded streets. Yesterday afternoon one of the "sky blue" fiends drove so recklessly around the corner of Franklin street, as he emerged from Spring, that a collision with the telegraph post was with difficulty avoided, and a man crossing the street narrowly escaped being crushed into mince pie.

The Footboard Weakened.

One of Hellman's two-horse cars derailed yesterday afternoon and collided with a Main street car going in the opposite direction, opposite the Grange Store. The footboard of the two-horse car was split all to pieces, but no other damage occurred.

ORANGE JUDD.

The Founder of the American Agriculturist in Los Angeles.

The TIMES yesterday had the pleasure of a visit from Orange Judd, the veteran publisher, who is paying Southern California a brief visit. Mr. Judd will be remembered as the founder of the American Agriculturist, a paper which is one of the best known on the continent, and under his management became the leading agricultural journal of the world. Mr. Judd commenced the publication of the Agriculturist in 1853, and continued its editor and principal proprietor until 1883, when it passed into other hands. Mr. Judd and his two sons are now the owners of the Prairie Farmer, of Chicago, and are rapidly making that excellent agricultural publication a necessity in every farm-house. Mr. Judd, accompanied by his wife, has been slowly making a tour of the West, corresponding all the time with his paper. Like all our other visitors, he is enthusiastic over Southern California, and expresses himself as astonished and delighted with the progress made here. It is a case of love at first sight with him, and it would not be strange of the veteran publisher should conclude to remove to our section and spend his remaining years among the orange groves. He is still laboring over a problem which has engaged his attention for many years, viz: "How Shall we keep the Boys at Home on the Farm." He has given this question a great deal of thought, because he is convinced that the cities are permitted to secure hundreds of young men who would do far better in the country, and might be kept there by good management. He concludes that farmers should give their sons a chance to become owners or part owners in the farm at an early age, and thus have a more direct interest in remaining.

Mr. Judd is to agricultural journalism what Horace Greeley was to political journalism. To thousands the name of Orange Judd is almost a household word. During his stay in this city he will remain at the St. Elmo, and will doubtless be pleased to meet his friends.

D. A. KUGHEN, proprietor of the C. C. C. Grocery Store, corner of Spring and Fourth streets, carries a full line of choice family groceries, equal in quality to any in the city. Since buying his partner out he has made improvements, rented the adjoining room for a warehouse, and has increased his stock of goods, so that he is now prepared to serve his customers with promptness at lower prices than ever before. He has had experience in business, buys for spot cash and gets bottom prices. He has adopted the cash system, is now selling goods for cash only or its equivalent; this obviates the losses usually incident in the credit business. He CAN and DOES sell groceries for very small profits. He makes change to a penny. Call and see his goods and prices, and you will be convinced that the above statement is true. mr23 1m

CATARRH.

To all those who are afflicted with any of the different forms of Catarrh we would say there is no disease which presents a greater diversity of symptoms—none more loathsome, insidious and dangerous than Nasal Catarrh, especially if complicated, as it almost always is, even from its first appearance, with an affection of the throat.

From the earliest symptoms (which are generally attributed to "cold in the head") to the various ugly and distressing stages through which the disease passes, the patient is hopeful of recovery, and rarely gives it proper attention until certain alarming symptoms present themselves, denoting unmistakably the rapid advance of the malady to the lungs. Indeed, so various are the symptoms that the presence of the disease is not always known, or even suspected, till it has reached the more advanced stages. The disease may or may not be attended by a discharge from the nostrils or the throat, but there is usually present a morbid secretion and a frequent disposition, especially in the morning, to clear the throat, and the effort to do so is often, though not always, attended by expectoration; there is a sensation of heaviness in the frontal part of the head, and the brain sometimes suffers to an extent producing headache; vertigo and confusion; it becomes difficult to think clearly and to concentrate the mind; the memory becomes impaired and the intellect enfeebled; despondency of spirits and an excitable condition of the nervous system. Such is the effect of the disease, and if to this train of symptoms (which not infrequently leads to insanity or idiocy) we add many of the more loathsome physical effects, as caries, or rottenness of the bones of the face and head, a most offensive smell to the breath, and corrupt, morbid and poisoned secretions, destruction or serious injury to the senses of smell, hearing, sight and taste, we have a catalogue of horrors which should lead any person to make early and proper efforts to eradicate the disease while it is in a curable stage.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless the disease has advanced to the chest and that both lungs are seriously involved. The Inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

THE railroad strikes, like the Irishman's colic, are growing no better fast.

THE Federated Trades of San Francisco are going to set up a holiday of their own.

TROOPS are trooping to St. Louis to keep the peace or, if too late for that, to gather up the pieces.

THE opening of Main street to Alameda at an early date is now assured. It will be a notable municipal improvement.

THE Chaplain of the House gave the Lord an out-and-out anti-monopoly talking-to, yesterday, in his prayer at the opening of the day's proceedings. The members did not go to sleep.

THE Congressional Committee on appropriations reports a "boodle" of $...000 for Wilmington harbor. The ... indicates another simoom at San Diego.

THE Congressional Committee, which escorted the remains of Senator John F. Miller to their last resting-place, is now on its homeward way. It will arrive in Los Angeles this noon, and will tarry here one day, to gather some understanding as to the development and needs of this promising southern country. The TIMES gives them welcome, and has no doubt that the distinguished visitors will be treated right royally during their brief stay. Semi-tropic hospitality is broad and gracious. The party has the following personnel: Hon. ... A. Louttit (Republican), of Stockton, Representative from the Second District of California; Hon. Joseph McKenna (Republican), of Suisun, Representative from the Third District of California; Hon. J. Thomas Spriggs (Democrat), of Utica, Representative from the Twenty-third District of New York; Hon. James Bright Morgan (Democrat) of Hernando, Representative from the Second District of Mississippi; Hon. Seth L. Milliken (Republican) of Belfast, Representative from the Third District of Maine; Hon. Polk Laffoon (Democrat) of Madisonville, Representative from the Second District of Kentucky; Hon. William Peters Hepburn (Republican), of Clarinda, Representative from the Eighth District of Iowa. Miss Fannie ... accompanies Mr. Milliken. F. ... Loomis a journalist, and Lieutenant Richard Clover, U. S. N., accompany the party, which is in charge of Chas. W. Johnson, Chief Clerk of the Secretary of the Senate.

COMING AFTER ALL.

The Congressional Committee Will Visit Los Angeles.

The idea of going home without their proposed call on the City of the Angels seems to have been one to which the Congressional Committee that escorted the remains of Senator Miller to the coast did not take kindly. The last advices given in yesterday's TIMES were to the effect that the Committee would go home via Los Angeles, but couldn't stop over. They seem to have wrestled with the proposition, making compromises and gradually edging toward a conclusion to stop. To a TIMES reporter early yesterday afternoon, Col. E. E. Hewitt, Superintendent of this division of the Southern Pacific, said: "We are going to bring down the Committee on a special to-morrow, and will rush it through as much ahead of the regular train as possible. We hope to get them here two or three hours ahead of the regular, which will give them a little time for a peep at the city. They will go out on the regular."

This was an improvement, but still not good enough. The Committee evidently felt the spell, and at last they succumbed, and the following telegram will show:

"SAN FRANCISCO, March 27, 12:20 p.m.—Dr. Walter Lindley: Have arranged to remain one day in Los Angeles. Arrive Sunday, at 1:30 p. m. Inform Lawmen, Secretary of your Board of Trade. CHAS. W. JOHNSON."

Mr. Johnson, it will be remembered, is in charge of the party. A large delegation of leading citizens will meet the committee at the depot, and do the honors.

PRESENTATION.

A Popular Railroad Passenger Agent Remembered.

The marriage of Fred W. Thompson, Traveling Passenger Agent of the Rock Island route, has already been noted. Mr. Thompson is a general favorite, and nowhere more so than among his compadres in the railroad world. Los Angeles now has a large representation of railroad men, and they decided to show their appreciation of their friend in a tangible way. There have been mysterious runnings about, which came to a head last evening, when a St. Elmo bell-boy was dispatched to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson's rooms with a big parcel and a little letter. The letter contained expressions of hearty good will; the parcel, an elegant silver pitcher and card receiver. The recipients were completely surprised. The following roads were represented in the testimonial: Pennsylvania; Denver & Rio Grande; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Wabash; Union Pacific; Southern Pacific; Chicago & Alton; California Southern; Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fé; Atlantic & Pacific; Los Angeles & San Gabriel Valley; Chicago & Northwestern; and the excursion agencies of Mr. Baker and Warner Bros. & Crosby.

MAIN STREET.

Removing the Last Barrier to its Extension.

City Attorney McKinley, yesterday, paid into court the sum of $13,398.65—the last quarter of the balance to be paid out to property owners for the opening of Main street through Bath to Alameda. The matter will come up before Judge Brunson, at 2 p. m. to-morrow, for its final hearing and to have the final decree of condemnation entered. Thus the last barrier in the way of this much needed and long contemplated improvement will be removed, and the good work is expected to be prosecuted at once.

A Circus that is No Circus.

Van Amburg's circus, after some growling that it couldn't exhibit in the city on account of the $1000-a-day license, has taken another tack. It will show here this week on the ground near the Tabernacle, and won't pay $1000 a day, either. The representatives went to City Clerk Robinson and got a license at $5 per day, on the avowal that their concern was not a circus at all, but only a show.

Trap Shooting.

There will be a big trap shoot at Agricultural Park this afternoon, at live birds and clay pigeons. The shoot is a free-for-all, though some matches will probably be made. Ned Fay, the 'Frisco crack shot, will participate.

... accessory to it. People who see the flowers will want to see the fruits, and vice versa. This ought to be a gala week for Los Angeles.

WASHINGTON.

A Debate in the House on Silver Coinage.

A PECULIAR PRAYER BY THE CHAPLAIN.

Improvements Proposed for California Harbors—Secretary Manning's Condition Unchanged—The Union League.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The debate on the silver question was opened in the House by Mr. Culberson, of Texas. He was a friend of silver, and in favor of placing it on the same plane with gold. It was necessary to provide some further legislation in order to break up the practice in the Treasury Department of repudiating the silver dollar, and to cause their application to the payment of the public debt, principal and interest. When the people declared that the financial policy of the Republican party should be enforced their mandate was respected and obeyed, but when the people revolted against the oppressive exactions and extortions of that financial policy, and declared that the financial policy of the Democratic party should be enforced, it seemed that their mandate fell still-born, and they were deprived of the fruits of their great victory by the exercise of official discretion, and the interests of all people were sacrificed on the altar of gold. Unfortunately for the people there was no law that required the Secretary of the Treasury to pay out surplus money on the public debt, but left a discretionary power in this regard with that officer, and since experience had shown that that discretion had been exercised to defeat the will of the people it should be withdrawn at once. He would make the coinage of silver free, and he would pass a law compelling the Treasury Department to pay the surplus on the public debt.

Mr. Long of Massachusetts said that in simple common sense the thing to do was to call a halt. We had an abundance of silver, more than the efforts of the Administration could force into circulation. Give silver coinage a present or prospective rest. In the interest of bi-metalism and in the interest of silver itself, it was time to cast an anchor and take bearings, to suspend, or at least fix a time for the suspension of silver coinage, and then to see if some international arrangement could not be made. In conclusion, he said: "I appeal to the victorious majority of this House, flushed with successes, and now entering on the full administration of the government. Is this the Democratic standard, this the first act of the Democracy now regaining full national control, that it strikes its first blow at public and private credit, that it refuses to sustain its own executive in keeping the financial flag at the masthead, and that it announces to the world that Democratic supremacy and leadership are only another name for impaired credit, for half-mast financial standards, and for transferring the republic from its financial rank among the foremost nations of the earth to that of the Indians and "Heathen Chinee?"

Mr. Dorgan, of South Carolina, made a strong plea for the establishment of a single gold standard, and advocated the suspension of coinage under the Bland act, claiming that the so-called debt-paying dollar was in reality a debt-scaling dollar; nothing but sixty cents' worth of bullion with a falsehood stamped upon it. "I repudiate," said Mr. Dorgan, "the suggestion that it is for the interest of the South to unite with the West against the East and North in enacting such laws as will enable us to pay the national debt in depreciated silver dollars."

J. M. Taylor, of Tennessee, briefly favored free coinage, and then the House adjourned.

A PECULIAR PRAYER.

The House Chaplain on Dynamite and Monopoly.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The Chaplain's opening prayer in the House this morning was as follows:

"Give ear, O God of Jacob, and awaken us to see the danger which threatens the civilized world—revolution more tremendous than any which history tells, in which the scenes of the Reign of Terror may be enacted in every capital of Europe and America. For a long time the few have mastered the many, because they understood the open secret of tools to them that can use them, but now the many have learned the secret of organization, drill and dynamite. Rouse the rich of the world to understand that the time has come for grinding, selfish monopoly to cease; that corporations may get souls in them, with justice, honor, conscience and human kindness. Teach the rich men of this country that their great fortunes are lent them by Thee for other purposes than to build and decorate palaces, to found private collections of art, to stock wine cellars, to keep racing studs and yachts, and to find better company than hostlers, grooms and jockeys, pool-sellers and book-makers. Teach them, O God, that it is Thee who has given them power to get these fortunes, that it is to prove them, to know what is in their hearts, whether they will keep Thy commandments or no, and that those commandments are: 'Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God, with all thy heart, and thy neighbor as thyself;' that if the rich men of our land keep these commandments, the poor will follow their example, and we, at least, will be saved from the days of tribulation that are fast coming on all the world. Help us, O God, and save us."

Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, asked unanimous consent that the prayer be printed in the Record.

Mr. James, of New York, objected, remarking, sotto voce, to a gentleman who asked him to withdraw his objection, that it was made because the prayer was an incendiary speech.

UNCHANGED.

Secretary Manning's Condition Not Improved.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Manning's condition is unchanged. "He is not out of danger," said Dr. Lincoln to-day, "and will not be for some time, but we feel encouraged as time goes by."

Dr. Lincoln left Secretary Manning's residence to-night at 10:30. This is the first night since the Secretary was taken ill that he has left before midnight. He stated that the Secretary's condition was about the same. His family, however, are more hopeful, and that he does not go backward they regard as an indication of ultimate recovery. The doctor would say nothing in regard to the Secretary's exact condition, but said that he was holding his own, and it would be some days before anything definite could be said. He is not yet out of danger.

THE UNION LEAGUE.

Officers Elected—Sound Resolutions Adopted.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The National Council of the National Union League held its annual session at the Ebbitt House in this city to-day. There was a very full representation of States. Officers for the year were elected as follows: President, C. H. Grosvenor; Vice-Presidents, William E. Chandler, Thomas R. Rish, James S. Negley, J. S. Robinson, L. C. Houck, J. E. O'Hara, C. A. Boutelle, B. K. Bruce, Nathan Goff, Lewis McKenzie; Corresponding Secretary, J. E. Bryant; Treasurer, A. M. Clapp; Chaplain, J. J. Cooper; Marshal, J. H. Barnes; Sergeant-at-Arms, S. P. Demar. A committee was made a report, which was unanimously adopted, congratulating the Republican party upon the evidence of its past wisdom and patriotism, seen in the course of the present Democratic Administration. After referring to the alleged fraudulent voting

... arrived. A switch was thrown ahead of the second ones, and the rails smeared with soap, so that it was impossible to stop the train, which was ditched. The engine was then dis-
